

A close-up photograph of a plate of pasta. The pasta is a short, tubular shape, possibly rigatoni or similar, coated in a thick, reddish-brown meat sauce. The sauce appears to contain ground meat and some vegetables. The pasta is topped with a generous amount of melted, golden-brown cheese. The plate is light blue and has a fork resting on the right side.

A cartoon illustration of a happy, smiling tooth character. The tooth is white with a pinkish-red blush on its cheeks and has a simple, friendly face. It is holding a yellow toothbrush with a blue bristle head in its right hand. The toothbrush is positioned as if it is about to brush the tooth's own surface. The background is plain white.
